Let us celebrate this Christmas by sharing the Great gift of Jesus Christ with everyone. Glory to God in the highest, peace on earth, and goodwill to all mankind.

Merry Christmas

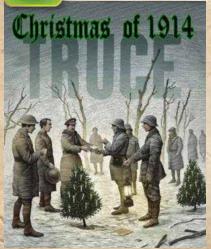

AN UNUSUAL CHRISTMAS

It was 1914; the First World War had started 5 months earlier. The Germans on one side were threatening to break through, while the British with the allies on the other side were fighting hard to stop them. Christmas was approaching. It was hard for the soldiers to recollect all the wonderful times they enjoyed each year with their families. Worse still, they were engaged in war in which they could lose their lives at any moment. They were caught in the paradox of Christmas and chaos, life and death.

Each day there were causalities on both sides. The general mood in the camps was one of apprehension. And as night approached, one could only hear the sodden boots in the slushy mud or the whisper of an officer or the moan of the cold wind signalling that Christmas was drawing near.

Foot prints from the past December advanced and days passed quickly. It was hardly the time or place to feel grateful for it. But at last, the Soldiers' Christmas Eve came. And when the dusk started to turn dark, memories kept soldiers in a trance of saddened silence. While thinking about their homes back in England, still looking and dreaming, their eyes caught a flare in the darkness. Light after light sprang up along the German front. And all down the English trenches there came a unique greeting that was strange in a war. "English soldier, English soldier, a merry Christmas, a merry Christmas."

What Child is this who, laid to rest, On Mary's lap is sleeping? Whom angels greet with anthems sweet while shepherds watch are keeping?

This, this is Christ the King, Whom shepherds guard and angels sing; Haste, haste, to bring Him laud, The babe, the son of Maryl
Why lies He in such mean estate Where ox and ass are feeding?
Good Christian, fear, for sinners here the silent Word is pleading.
Nails, spear shall pierce Him through, The Cross be borne for me, for you; Hail, hail the Word made flesh, the babe, the son of Mary!

So bring Him incense, gold and myrrh; Come peasant and king to own Him. The King of kings salvation brings; Let loving hearts enthrone Him.

Raise, raise, the song on high, the virgin sings her lullaby, Joy, joy, for Christ is born, The babe, the son of Mary!

What a manner of man is he?

The 31-year-old Sultan Kosen who stands 8ft 3inches tall is the world's tallest man since 2009. His newest friend Chandra Dangi, 75, who is only one foot 7 inches tall is now the world's shortest. Recently they met at St. Thomas Hospital in central London, for photo-shoot. Although their heights are different, Kosen said that both could understand each other's struggles, and when he looked into the eyes of his friend, he could see that he was "a good man."

In the Christmas story, there are two names which are important to remember. One is Joseph and the other is Mary.

Matthew 1: 18 - 20: The Character of Joseph

Verse 18: "Now the birth of Jesus Christ took place in this way. Then his mother Mary had been betrothed to Joseph, before they came together she was found to be with child of the Holy Sprit; and her husband Joseph, being a just man and unwilling to put her to shame, resolved to divorce her quietly."

A just man is the one who observes the Jewish law. According to the law, two courses were permissible in such a situation as Joseph saw confronting him: he might expose Mary by bringing her before the court or he might divorce her privately by handing her a writ in the presence of two witnesses. While Joseph was still contemplating on this, the Spirit of God spoke to him in dream and told him what role he should play in the Plan of the Almighty. Reading these lines and between the lines we can see the kind of the man he is. He was just, a word which in Matthew implies both religious worthiness and obedience to the will of God. As we are going to celebrate Christmas one more time, let's discord all kinds of malice and be sensitive to divine visitation.

-J. Solomon

Dearly beloved in the Lord,

Jubilant Christmas greetings to you in His name which is wonderful!

Love Come Down

Christmas is all about 'The Saviour is born', 'Love coming down' and 'celebrating King'... so as to be celebrating it exceedingly with great joy. When the sojourners walk along, saw the star, they rejoiced. They might have realized the Saviour, Christ the Lord is born for humanity (Mt. 2 10). Hence they hurried off (Lk.2:14). It was because of this vision, joy to the world, peace proclaimed to the earth and good will towards men and women becoming a reality! 'God with us' has no more an emotional promise, but of reality in 'Emmanuel' given unto us. Therefore Christmas is asking us to love Him, know Him, serve Him, seek Him and wonder at His coming down! Today in the city of David, a Savior has been born to you! They say attitude is altitude; God with His divine love has come down to humanity with a human deity to relate and we celebrate!

Waiting for Christmas?

The personalities of elderly Simeon and Anna are not decorated in the nativity scenes today. Often we wait for so many things in Christmas. Looking forward to something wonderful and fulfilling! Simeon General Secretary's Desk... is described as just and devote – note - waiting for the consolation of His people, Israel! He was given a prophecy that He will see His coming as Messiah in his lifetime. Now by the same Holy Spirit, he walked to the Lord's house, took the baby Jesus on his arm, see the vision behind the baby. He blessed God! He said salvation to all the peoples of earth, light to gentiles and glory of His people have come! What an amazing missionary proclamation of consolation!

Then Anna a senior saint, portrayed as prophetess, widow with 84 years of living in the house of the Lord. Doing fasting and praying 24 hours a day x 7 days a week, day and night to see something for forgiveness. The redemption was seen as visible movement to be touched and felt. She gave thanks to the Lord! Worshiping the baby Jesus for forgiveness of humanity is possible and what she looked for has just happened! Wonder therefore, is worship of Christmas!

It is vibrancy in Youth with their gifts and grace

National Youth Conference '14 met in Good Samaritan School campus in Delhi, was another significant celebration of youth. It was well organized and coordinated in Delhi with the PG leaders. Dr. Mrs. Ananthi Jebasingh along other distinguished leaders including Mr. John Samuel, Dr. V K Williams, Judge George Barakan, Pastor John Daniel, Rev. Christopherraj and others inaugurated it. This made a solemn vow of bringing 8000 youth during this current year by these youth, in the concluding service. With this vibrancy, media, technology, social network and gadget generation, oh, how simple for the mission to complete the work of evangelism in the nation! Pray that every consecrated local plans for youth mobilization materialize and been fruitful towards Giant Leap 2020.

Bengal ministry revival made in the belt

It is felt for a long time the unreached people groups of the world 'Bengalis' to be networked with a new base in Bengal to concentrate West Bengal, all over East India, cover Assam and Tripura. TBCU (Tripura Baptist Church Union) linked with FMPB for networking in this Bengal belt for evangelism, discipleship and missional living.

Same way, with Uttarbond near Silchar, the Presbyterian with their synod of mission as our long standing partner attach our congregation and plan to work wider in the Lower Assam belt and in Mizoram. In Meghalaya KJP (Khasi Presbyterian Church) with the coordination of NCC-NEI organized Church- mission seminar for us.

Difficulties, sickness and Disturbances with Fundamentalism

God is able and He has been on reign despite the difficulties at places, sickness of missionaries, sudden and sustaining. Besides, the vandalism at various places of Jammu, Rajasthan, MP, UP, Chattisgarh and other places are steadily increasing. We would appreciate godly prayer offered all the time for safety, security and sensitivity in the context mission and missionaries at work place.

Executive Committee and other committee meetings

God's sovereign power was established in all our dealing with strategies, management, admin and other forms of courses of action and course correction. Safety, security and sensitivity walls across local, territories and national were discussed. So much of integration in our approach to wholistic mission was resolved. Decentralization of regions, zones and states to raise up local leaders and empower them for authentic and credible leadership of furtherance of gospel is planned. Disciples and sharpening the track was established with mission and missionaries. Multiethnic leadership to emerge was a thrust at all level of leadership in the movement. The church leaders in Gujarat and their participation was admired. Decentralizing Gujarat FMPB will be learnt as important lesson. It will soon emerge in other places whenever we are crowded with ministry operation across the nation. We sincerely thank you for your prayers for our leaders and missionaries

Hyderabad, AP & Telungana State Conference:

It was a warm movement of God's spirit moving along with both traditional and new worship centers and in the evening meetings. The professionals met for a forum and resolved to address gospel at work place specially the so called high places of MNC, KBE and Scientific research bases. We praise God for all the leaders, staff, volunteers under the leadership of Bro. T. Davidraj and Pastor K S. Sinha along several pastors' team with their hard labor during our meetings in Nov 14 - 17.

The finance Advisory and monitory committee met and analyzed the budget, expenses and income flow. While appreciating the trend of progressive and growth oriented inflow, it is not adequate to pace with which we planned the budget. Three major happenings: i) The inflow of new missionaries' were three times higher. ii) The increase of salary and allowance planned and executed. iii) The huge Giant Leap 2020 operation of ministry. The FAMC felt to raise up to the occasion to raise the trend of steep growth with projects, funds planned to be at carefully and strategically met. The District leaders and staff team need extra grace for the next four months of ministry to support mission.

Christmas Season's Ministry

As it has been, the carol rounds, carol services and such will be a wonderful occasion of visiting, cheering and praying over our families and friends. May every leader of prayer groups be blessed by the Lord! This is the thirteenth month allowance of the year we usually gift to missionaries equally and the mission field kids to have Christmas cheer. Thank you teams for your continued consistency of commitment to missionaries and children.

Today, in the city of David, Saviour is born! He is King! Let us love Him! Know Him! Serve Him! Seek Him! Tell Him! Tell about Him! Celebrate Christmas of hope and deliverances in Him.

With much gratitude,

Your brother in the Lord,

Simon Ponniah DECEMBER 2014 Friends Focus

Following the salutation, came an invitation from those harsh voices. "Come out English soldiers, come out here to us," and the hymn "Oh Holy Night" was sung while the night watch must have lifted their eyes to heavens even as the plaintive call was given. Whatever the spirit of Christmas had been before that hour it was now above all the spirit of hope of peace.

The night was made easier by songs from German trenches while British responded with their own Christmas carols. And as the Christmas day dawned over the muddy fields, men who had shot at each other joined in a solemn service for their fallen brothers as the officers led the way. Side by side they buried their dead and Psalm 23 was read while every head lay bare. Yes it was sight one would never see in a war.

Photographs, gifts, scarfs, puddings, post cards, prayers, confessions, games, were exchanged. All through the day no shot was fired. As the Christmas of 1914 drew to a close soldiers who had sung together, played together and prayed together returned to their trenches. They must have felt reluctant to let the common ground between them become no man's land once again.

But even as the darkness fell around them, a lone voice floated across the few yards of earth on which they had stood together. It was the grand carol "silent night." In a true spirit of Christmas one voice and then another and then another joined in. Soon the whole world seemed to be singing and for a brief moment the sound of peace in that carol was a sound every soul knew by heart. The war went on later but that was the way it was one Christmas just a hundred years ago. And that's the way it will be as we embrace the message of that silent holy night recollecting that grand event in history.

God in Flesh – Jesus on Earth

Christmas day reminds us of the incarnation of God into man so as to redeem mankind. Paul in Colossians 1:22,23 stresses this truth that at one time we were far away from God and were His enemies because of the evil things we did and thought. But now, by means of the physical death of His son, God has made us His friends in order to make us holy, pure and faultless in His sight.

Paul reiterates this truth through 2 Corinthians 8:9 when he says

"You know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ: rich as He was, He made himself poor for your sake in order to make you rich by means of His poverty."

The birth of King of the universe, our Lord Jesus was low and mean. How shocking and horrible it was to be born in such disgrace! It signifies partially the poverty of Jesus Christ that He assumed. We often neglect that He walked the path of Obedience all the way to death, death on the cross. (Philippians 2:8). So God exalted His Name above every other name. Christ became man and this fact confirms that we too can lead the life of victory and be transformed like Him.

"So Christ came and preached the Good News of peace to all who were far away from God." Christ who incarnated as Prince of peace changed us from enemies into His friends and gave us the task of making others His friends. (2Corinthians 5:18). The resultant is a 'new being' (2Corinthians 5:17).

The word 'new being' is a horticultural word. In John 15, Jesus talks of the relationship between the wine and the branches. When man establishes relationship with God, he becomes a new being. Because of sin, man is alienated from God. When he comes to God. He calls him son: and as a result a new relationship blossoms. We become more privileged and thus we become rich because of His poverty. As a result of our richness through His poverty, a man obtains peace. That is through His sacrificial death on the cross, God forgave our sins and established peace once again with us.

Peace with God: Our enmity with God has disappeared and we have become His friends. Man is described as a walking civil war and is always divided. Till man does resituate with Christ, he is embroiled in confusion.

Till we come in peace with God, we do not understand what we do, for we do not do what we would like to, but instead we do what we hate (Romans 7:15). When God's peace enters into us, we will do what we would like to do.

Peace among men: Christ died for all of us so as to make us His friends. Under such situation. man learns to view others through divine perspective. It should not be viewed through perspectives of economy, gifts from God, social status, experiences, caste or creed or age. Only under such situations does peace envelop men. This develops dynamic changes leading to testimonial life

The next elevation is that God calls us His children with one condition being imposed. Happy are those who work for peace, God will call them His children (Matthew 5:9)

We are depicted as ambassadors of Christ. Just as God had sent His only Son to make covenant with men; we also ought to make peace with others, not as a matter of policy, but in principle. Our Christmas celebration in a sense is incomplete. Only when Christ is born in every heart and brings forth miraculous transformation in their lives, is our Christmas celebration complete.

We need to proclaim this Good News of peace with great joy to all the people. Then only will there be glory to the God in the High and peace on earth.

Otherwise... Let child Jesus help us to ponder over the real meaning of Christmas.

MISSIONARY BIOGRAPHY Robert Murray McCheyne, 1813-1843

Early Life

Robert Murray McCheyne was born in Edinburgh in May 1813, the youngest child of a leading solicitor in Scotland's Supreme Court of Justice. His parents took great care over the spiritual welfare of the family and as he grew up Robert developed a high standard of virtue in all his conduct, so much so that his father wrote of him in retrospect, "I never found him guilty of a lie or of any mean or unworthy action." At fourteen he entered Edinburgh University, studying literature and poetry, and graduated four years later in 1831. Robert also had great respect for his eldest brother David who in return took a keen interest in Robert's spiritual condition, but a sudden illness in the summer of 1831 resulted in David's death.

Soon after his conversion in 1831, McCheyne began to prepare for the ministry of the Church of Scotland and commenced his studies of divinity under Thomas Chalmers, the outstanding theologian and scholar of his day. He quickly mastered Latin, Greek and Hebrew, but his learning was solely for the purpose of advancing his understanding of scripture, since he had no time for intellectual speculation or scholarly controversies. To him the wisdom of all the ages as revealed by God through His Word far surpassed the finest philosophies and theories devised by men. His student days were marked by a rapid growth in grace as the truths of scripture were applied in his life until he was able to exclaim, "A calm hour with God is worth a whole lifetime with man."

He also steeped himself in the journals and writings of Jonathan Edwards, David Brainerd and Henry Martyn, and longed that the power of the Holy Spirit that had been so evident in their lives would also be granted him. It was in this way that he was led to start evangelistic work in the poorer districts of Edinburgh with his fellow students early in 1834. Conscious of the great responsibility of the task before him, he recorded, "Began in fear and weakness, and in much trembling. May the power be of God!" The next year he was licensed to preach by the Annan Presbytery and immediately set out on what he called, "a glorious privilege" of proclaiming the gospel.

Sowing the Seed

Towards the end of 1835, McChevne became the assistant minister of a parish near Stirling. In preaching and pastoral care, he soon made a deep impression on the town dwellers and farmers alike. Each Sunday he expounded the gospel "as free as the air we breathe, fresh as the stream from the everlasting hills" and each weekday he systematically visited house by house, sharing the scriptures with any needy soul who was ready to listen. It was a time of patient preparation for the work God had in store for him and in 1836 he was called to the ministry at St. Peter's church in Dundee. The text of his first sermon there was that chosen by the Lord Jesus in the synagogue at Nazareth, "The Spirit of the Lord God is upon me, because the Lord hath anointed me to preach good tidings" (Isaiah 61:1-3), and as he looked back over that occasion he prayed to God, "Put Thy blessing upon this day," and noted in his journal that he "felt given over to God, as one bought with a price".

"Bethel-Like Sacredness"

McChevne's ministry at Dundee lasted only six years and was divided into two almost equal periods by his journey to the Holy Land in 1839. From the start he laboured without ceasing amongst the population in the overcrowded streets which his church, had been built to serve and his singleness of heart and mind can be seen from his statement, "I feel there are two things it is impossible to desire with sufficient ardour. personal holiness, and the honour of Christ in the salvation of soul." It was this inseparable combination of saintliness and zeal for soul-winning that was the chief characteristic of McChevne's ministry. Indeed a modern authority has written of him, "He was convinced that a diligent minister ought to expect success in God's service, but he saw that he could not hope for such success unless he were willing to preach Christ for Christ's sake alone." McChevne fully realized that one word uttered in the power of the Holy Spirit could do more than

The earth has grown old with its burden of care but at Christmas it is alwavs is young, the heart of the jewel burns lustrous and fair and its soul full of music breaks the air, when the song of angels is sung." - Phillips Brooks thousands spoken in a spirit of unbelief, and God's seal upon his ministry was so evident that a contemporary of his, remarked that the church had been filled with a Bethel-like sacredness' during the services. In the six short years he spent at St. Peter's church a congregation of twelve hundred members was gathered there and towards the end of his life, he was able to state, without a trace of boastfulness, "I think I can say I have never risen a morning without thinking how I could bring more souls to Christ."

Gifts and Graces of God

The years from 1836-39 were spent faithfully laying the foundations for the blessing which followed later in his ministry. His natural gifts in poetry, art and music were amply expressed in his sermons and writings which included a volume of verses entitled "Songs of Zion". Many of these were set to music and used as hymns of which, "When this passing world is done" is a memorable example. McCheyne's achievements were all the more remarkable when it is remembered that a severe heart condition often compelled him to lay aside energetic activities. This was especially so in the matter of missionary outreach which had occupied his thoughts from his earliest days as a Christian. He had eagerly sought the few accounts of missionary enterprises that had been published up to that time and he had been deeply moved by the sacrificial devotion shown by pioneers such as Brainerd and Martyn. By 1836 he felt willing to go to India and prayed that God would make His will plain, but the bouts of ill-health he suffered showed him that God had much to teach him.

In 1838 as he was recovering from a period of illness. McCheyne was suddenly invited to be one of a deputation sent to examine the possibility of missionary work amongst Jews in Eastern Europe and the Turkish Empire. It was in this manner that God through HIS mercy and providence graciously answered McCheyne's longing to share in the work of opening new fields to the sound of the gospel.

Grace period of One Year

Magician Devia of Gaward field, Gujarat has accepted Jesus Christ. Of his two wives, one is a believer in Jesus Christ. The other wife creates problems and aided by villagers, she asks her husband to betray Jesus Christ.

Devia has told his wife and other villagers, "Let us keep off idol worship for a year and worship Jesus Christ. if we get protection and blessings from Jesus Christ, let us continue to hold on to our faith in Jesus Christ, if not, we may return to idol worship." Pray that in the one year period of grace, Devia's wife and villagers realise that Jesus Christ is the real God.

Water at the depth of 500 feet.

Due to monsoon failure in the last few years, it is very difficult to trace water even after sinking deep bore well to a depth of 1000 feet at Vapparapalli village in Tamil Nadu. Vasanth, a believer sank a deep bore well up to 500 feet and water gushed out. The villagers were surprised and excited. They started praising and worshiping Jesus Christ.

Healed from death-bed

Believer Surama's brothers in Faithabad, Haryana are non-believers. The non-believing brothers forced Surama to donate money to do puja. Hence Surama donated money to the puja, but she did not attend the puja. From that day onwards, Surama became sick. She approached many magicians who could not bring any solace. Finally, she was brought to our missionaries for prayers. The missionaries prayed fervently for the healing of Surama. God answered the prayers and healed Surama who was on the verge of death. Pray that she remains steadfast in her faith on Jesus Christ and the relatives to declare their faith on Jesus Christ. Every year, Prayer Group Members and Leaders undertake Christmas Carol rounds and receive Christmas gifts for missionaries. We thank you for your sacrificial work for this year and for your generous contribution to missionaries. This year too, you may send your donations to the headquarters directly or through Prayer Group Leaders.
